DETAILS

♥ OCTOBER

For the first month, Teen Council Members will select one of the Fall/Halloween themed kit ideas listed on page three. Member will be responsible for completing and donating at least 3 kits. Member may complete more kits for extra hours. Kits are due by 10/22

♥ NOVEMBER

In November, members will think of their favorite Thanksgiving dish and share that recipe with the families staying at Atlanta Ronald McDonald House Charities. We would like members to creatively design the recipe using Word to go in our Teen Council Cookbook. If members include a video with their recipe, they can receive extra hours. Due 11/19

♥ DECEMBER

Members will reach out to family members, friends, and others in the community to collect restaurant gift cards and Holiday Wish List items for Ronald's Holiday Shop to support our families this holiday season. Items may be donated throughout the month of December.

♥ JANUARY

Each member will collect warm wish list items from the community or family and friends. Warm wish list items may include coffee, hot cocoa, soups, macaroni and cheese, microwavable meals, etc. Due 1/28

♥ FEBRUARY

Members will work together in their assigned groups to begin their fundraising project. The fundraising goal for each group will be to collect enough money to sponsor a meal later on. Groups may decide how they fundraise creatively

♥ MARCH

Members will select the children's book of their choice and record a video of themselves reading it for the families. Videos will be due on Read Across America Day - Due 3/2

♥ APRIL

Members will select a date to provide a meal for the families using the money they fundraised. The meal will either be prepared in-person or catered, depending on what is allowed at the time. Due 4/30
