"During our hospital stay, the Ronald McDonald Family Room was a huge sense of support. The volunteers and meals provided a lot of comfort during a trying time. It was an experience we’ll never forget and had a profound impact on our family. We were excited at the opportunity to give back."

—Stacie Stewart, and her husband, Atlanta RMHC Board Member Cory Stewart, raised $1,500 to provide meal gift cards and stock the Family Room pantry.

"Honestly, we wouldn’t have been able to successfully complete his treatment without the Ronald McDonald House. It made a huge difference."

—Chelsea Pope, from Gay, Georgia, who with her son, Aden Womack, 5, stayed with us at our Ronald McDonald House near Egleston.

"I love Atlanta RMHC because all of the volunteers are so supportive and everyone works so hard to keep the children distracted and happy in tough times."

—Brooks Nuckols, a member of our Teen Council and dedicated volunteer, adopted 100 families for one night with a school award.
