

The Eldercare & Special Needs Law Practice Of Daniel D. Munster

LIGHTING THE WAY FOR GEORGIANS SINCE 1999

BIOGRAPHY OF DANIEL D. MUNSTER

Daniel D. Munster received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Vanderbilt University in 1990. He went on to study law at the University of Detroit where he was published on Law Review and clerked for the Michigan Supreme Court.

Since graduating from law school in 1993, Mr. Munster has invested thirty years assisting Georgians with various eldercare, special needs, and traditional estate planning matters. Early in his career, Mr. Munster had the opportunity to learn a great deal while working with the Senior Citizens Law Project, a division of Atlanta Legal Aid. In 1999, he founded The Eldercare & Special Needs Law Practice of Daniel D. Munster. While Dan's main office is located in Atlanta, Georgia, he represents clients across the state without regard to geographic location.

Mr. Munster often delivers presentations to attorneys, financial professionals, and other civic organizations on topics related to his practice. His writings have appeared in various publications including the Georgia Bar Journal. A passionate advocate for the elderly, Dan has served on the Georgia Alzheimer's and Related Dementias State Plan Task Force since 2013. He also serves on the Executive Committee of the Fiduciary Law Section. In 2022, Dan became the first eldercare attorney in Georgia to be elected as a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel. Additionally, he is a member of Atlanta Estate Planning Council and the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys.

Dan's skilled, ethical, and compassionate approach to the practice of law has earned favorable recognition from the legal community. Martindale-Hubbell has awarded Dan its highest peer review rating (AV Preeminent) every year since 2005. Atlanta Magazine has recognized Dan as a Georgia Super Lawyer in the category of Elder Law every year since 2007. And finally, Dan has earned recognition in rankings compiled by Best Lawyers in America (2019 – 2024) and U.S. News & World Report (2020 – 2024) for his work in the categories of both Elder Law and Trusts & Estates.
